Dear Friends in Christ,

This weekend we continue the celebration of First Eucharist for 189 children of our parish. I especially extend a warm welcome to the family and friends of our First Eucharist candidates. Thank you for sharing in the joy of this special day, and for providing a solid foundation and example of faith for the children. Your support and prayers are a special gift to our young people!

The Gospel reading for the Fifth Sunday of Easter is very timely as it speaks of the beauty of Christ's love for us and His command to love one another. At every Mass, the love of Christ is offered to us in the Real Presence of the Eucharist. As disciples we share His love through our own gift of presence and witness to others. Above the tabernacle in our Church is a light to indicate the Real Presence of Christ. When we receive Holy Communion, we become a tabernacle and resting place for Him. Our actions, the manner in which we love, offer the opportunity for us to share Christ's light and love. How do you shine? One way that we allow Christ's light to shine is through our commitment to Stewardship in Action. Two weeks ago, I spoke at all of our Masses regarding how we can discern our gifts and talents. The homily is available on our website (www.annunciationorlando.org) and the booklet, Stewardship in Action, is available in the Narthex or at the Parish Office. There are some wonderful questions and exercises to personally complete as part of the discernment process. Thank you for taking time to complete the card in the back of the booklet and returning it to us. Together we share our gifts and talents to form the beautiful story of our parish family's commitment to know, love and serve God by loving and serving others.

As you come before the Lord this week, please pray for me and for the Priests that serve our community.... pray that we may be the Priests and servants that you need and deserve. Know that we will pray for you, your loved ones and your intentions. We may not see one another each day but may we meet each day in our prayers!

In Christ,

Very Rev. Stephen D. Parkes, V.F.
Pastor

ADVOCACY AND JUSTICE MINISTRY

WASHINGTON—The chairman of the Committee on Domestic Justice and Human Development of the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB) expressed "deep disappointment in the Senate's failure to support reasonable regulations to reduce gun violence in our nation" in an April 18 letter to Senate Majority Leader Harry Reid and Senate Minority Leader Mitch McConnell.

"The USCCB has been working with other faith leaders and organizations urging Congress to support legislation that builds a culture of life by promoting policies that reduce gun violence and save people's lives in homes and communities throughout our nation," wrote Bishop Stephen E. Blaire of Stockton, California. "In the wake of tragic events such as the shooting at Sandy Hook Elementary, the failure to support even modest regulations on firearms is a failure in moral leadership to promote policies which protect and defend the common good."

The U.S. Senate failed to pass amendments to the Senate's gun violence legislation that would have expanded background checks for gun purchases, increased penalties for gun trafficking, reinstated an assault weapons ban and imposed restrictions on civilian access to high capacity ammunition magazines. Bishop Blaire noted that many of the provisions of the bill enjoyed bipartisan support.

"Though we are disappointed, we will continue our efforts to work with Congress and other people of good will to advocate for policies that create a safer and more peaceful society," Bishop Blaire wrote. Press Release USCCB - April 19, 2013

Pope Francis urges Christians to be generous with their God-given talents

Pope Francis on Wednesday called on Christians to await the coming of the Lord with trust and joy.

Speaking to crowds of pilgrims gathered in St. Peter's Square for the Wednesday General Audience, the Pope continued his catechesis on the Creed and reflected on three Gospel texts that – he said – help us to understand the mystery of the Last Judgment and the second coming of the Lord.

“Just as human history began with the creation of man and woman in the image of God” – the Pope explained – “so it will end with Christ’s return and the final judgment”.

The parables Pope Francis chose to examine are the parable of the wise and foolish virgins that, he said, reminds us that we must be spiritually prepared to meet the Lord when he comes; the parable of the talents, that emphasizes our responsibility to use wisely God’s gifts, making them bear abundant fruit, and here he said: “I would ask the many young people present to be generous with their God-given talents for the good of others, the Church and our world”; and finally, the parable of the final judgment that “reminds us that, in the end, we will be judged on our love for others and especially for those in need”.

Pope Francis said that through these parables, our Lord teaches us to await his coming not with fear but with confident trust, ever watchful for the signs of his presence and faithful in prayer and works of charity, so that when he comes he will find us his good and faithful servants. 2013-04-24 Vatican Radio
