Holy Water Bottles

After all of our Masses this Easter Weekend, we will be handing out Holy Water Bottles. Please take one for each family. The Year of Faith is an opportunity to grow closer to God and to fuel the fire of our faith. We are then called to spread the Faith with a renewed Evangelization. Use this Holy Water in your home to bless yourself and your family in remembrance of your baptism.

Many blessings upon you and your home!

Mission Churches. That mission churches may be signs and instruments of hope and resurrection.

Stewardship Reflections - March 24th

Our reflection on the Easter readings may be as profound as any throughout the liturgical year. Stewards understand that this life is merely a prelude to the next life — that is why they live as stewards. They recognize that what they seek is a heavenly reward, not an earthly one. Thus the question they must ask is not “What is in this for me?” The question the good steward asks is, “How can I serve?” We are called to be an Easter people. There is a significant difference between being an Easter people and just a Church people. If we are truly an Easter people, our focus is on the victory which Christ's Resurrection presents to us.

Easter and the promise it presents us make us a joyful people, who worship with a sense of hope and confidence. Easter people as good stewards live their lives with an attitude of gratitude, not a sense of obligation. Easter people do not fear death, but have comfort in the promises and salvation of Christ. Dear Friends in Christ, Christ is Risen! Alleluia! Alleluia! Happy Easter! Thank you for your presence and prayers as we celebrate this special feast. I especially extend a warm welcome to anyone who is visiting with us from other places or faith backgrounds. As we gather today on the holy ground of our parish campus, we celebrate the beautiful gift of life that God has blessed each of us with. If you are with us today but do not worship with our community on a regular basis, I welcome you home to the Catholic Church and extend an invitation to visit with one of the Priests, Religious Sisters or Staff to answer any questions you may have about our faith. We are here to serve you and to guide you in the journey of the beauty of our faith.

During the Easter Season we focus on celebrations of the Sacraments of Initiation. At our Vigil Mass we welcome 6 new Catholics into our parish family and others will be joining us in Full Communion in May. In a few weeks we will be celebrating First Eucharist with the children of our parish and every weekend we celebrate the gift of baptism. Today after all of the Masses and in honor of the Year of Faith, we have a special gift of a holy water bottle for you to take home as a reminder of your own baptism and entrance into the Church. Water is necessary for life to be sustained and flourish. Through the Sacrament of Baptism we are introduced into a life of faith and an amazing journey with the Lord. I pray that as we continue to walk together towards a personal and intimate relationship with Christ, we may grow towards embracing a heart that is burning to know, love and serve God by loving and serving others. Is your heart burning?

Thank you also for your patience as we continue through the process of construction on our campus. The new driveway and drop off is almost complete and will be a great help to our parishioners with special needs. The parking lot on the west side of the church building is complete and you are welcome to park there on the weekends. After the 6:30am Sunrise Mass we will be taking a walk around the track and field for the first time. This is a soft opening as we are visioning the use of the field as well as preparing guidelines for its use. Once again... your patience is appreciated!

I pray that you and your loved ones have a blessed Easter! When you come before the Lord, please pray for me, for the other Priests who serve our parish, for our Religious Sisters- the Servants of the Pierced Hearts of Jesus and Mary, and for our Staff. Know that we will pray for you, your loved ones and your intentions. We may not see each other each day but may we meet each day in our prayers!

In Christ,

Fr. Stephen Parkes

Very Rev. Stephen D. Parkes, V.F.
Pastor

A reminder: Our Parish Office will be closed on Easter Monday, April 1st. We will reopen on Tuesday. Thank you!

Vocation Blessing Cup Update: During Holy Week of 2012, Father Stephen Parkes introduced the Vocation Blessing Cup to our Annunciation parishioners at the Mass of the Lord's Supper on Holy Thursday evening. Over 250 households showed an interest in hosting the cups in their homes by signing up during our "Sign-up Weekend." During this past year, many others also offered to host, and we sincerely thank everyone who has done this! If you have not yet been called, please do not think that you have been forgotten. Since the Vocation Blessing Cups have been circulating, the Cups have been hosted in 148 homes. We appreciate the patience of those who are still waiting for their turn.

We will have another Sign-up Weekend on the weekend of April 6-7. If you are interested in hosting the Vocation Blessing Cup in your home, please fill out a form at that time. If you have already turned in a form, you do not need to sign another one. You may also sign up through the Parish Office or by calling Bob and Cheryl Nettles at 407-297-1852. Thank you for your interest in promoting Religious Vocations!

Divine Mercy Sunday - April 7th

Please join us from 2pm to 4pm in our Church for this special devotion.

Divine Mercy Sunday: St. Faustina's Diary records 14 occasions when Jesus requested that a Feast of Mercy (Divine Mercy Sunday) be observed, for example:

My daughter, tell the whole world about My inconceivable mercy. I desire that the Feast of Mercy be a refuge and shelter for all souls, and especially for poor sinners. On that day the very depths of My tender mercy are open... The soul that will go to Confession and receive Holy Communion shall obtain complete forgiveness of sins and punishment. ... Let no soul fear to draw near to Me. ... It is My desire that it be solemnly celebrated on the first Sunday after Easter. Mankind will not have peace until it turns to the Fount of My Mercy. (Diary, no. 699)

On May 5, 2000, five days after the canonization of St. Faustina, the Vatican decreed that the Second Sunday of Easter would henceforth be known as Divine Mercy Sunday.

The Image: Jesus appeared to St. Faustina in a vision, with his right hand raised in a blessing and his left touching his garment above his heart. Red and white rays emanate from his heart, symbolizing the blood and water that was poured out for our salvation and our sanctification. The Lord requested that "Jesus, I trust in You" be inscribed under his image. Jesus asked that his image be painted and venerated throughout the world: "I promise that the soul that will venerate this image will not perish" (Diary, no. 48) and "By means of this image I will grant many graces to souls" (Diary, no. 742).

The Chaplet of Divine Mercy: The Chaplet was also given to St. Faustina with this promise: "Encourage souls to say the chaplet which I have given you" (Diary, no. 1541). "Whoever will recite it will receive great mercy at the hour of death. ... Even if there were a sinner most hardened, if he were to recite this chaplet only once, he would receive grace from My infinite mercy. I desire that the whole world know My infinite mercy" (Diary, no. 687).

The U.S. Catholic bishops have launched a pastoral strategy addressing critical life, marriage and religious liberty concerns. The overall focus is to invite Catholics to pray for rebuilding a culture favorable to life and marriage and for increased protections of religious liberty.

Campaign components include monthly Eucharistic holy hours in cathedrals and parishes, daily family rosary, special Prayers of the Faithful at all Masses, fasting and abstinence on Fridays, and the second observance of a Fortnight for Freedom.

The call to prayer is prompted by the rapid social movements and policy changes currently underway, such as the mandate by the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services that coerces employers, including heads of religious agencies, to pay for sterilizations, abortion-inducing drugs and contraceptives, as well as increased efforts to redefine marriage. "The pastoral strategy is essentially a call and encouragement to prayer and sacrifice—it's meant to be simple," said Archbishop Salvatore Cordileone of San Francisco, chairman of the bishops' Subcommittee for the Promotion and Defense of Marriage. "It's not meant to be another program but rather part of a movement for Life, Marriage, and Religious Liberty, which engages the New Evangelization and can be incorporated into the Year of Faith. Life, Marriage, and Religious Liberty are not only foundational to Catholic social teaching but also fundamental to the good of society," he said. A website with resources from the USCCB is available at: www.usccb.org/life-marriage-liberty.

"With the challenges this country is facing, it is hoped that this call to prayer and penance will help build awareness among the faithful as well as spiritual stamina and courage for effective witness. We also hope that it will encourage solidarity with all people who are standing for the precious gifts of life, marriage, and religious liberty."

Archbishop Cordileone

Our Statue of Padre Pio has been moved to its new home which will be called Padre Pio's Place. This building will be a multi-use building with meeting space for our teens and for small gatherings.

"My past, O Lord, to Your mercy; my present, to Your love; my future to Your providence." — Padre Pio
