October 29, 2017  Thirtieth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Are we equipped to address the disunity present among Christians today?

As the world observes the 500th anniversary of Martin Luther’s nailing of his “95 Theses” to the door of Wittenberg Cathedral, we reflect on the history and theology of this major event in the life of the world with a lecture series featuring several scholars in Church history and Sacred Scripture. Watch the first in this lecture series on the Reformation, titled The Reformation: A Tragedy in Five Acts, featuring Dr. Christopher Blum. In this episode, Dr. Blum highlights how the tragedy of the Reformation played out, not simply in the religious realm of society, but in the souls of Europeans.

All Saints Day - Holy Day of Obligation
Vigil Mass on Tuesday, October 31 at 5:30pm and Masses on Wednesday, November 1 at 7am, 8:30am (School Mass), 11am (Spanish), 12:15pm and 7pm. All Saints’ Day is a solemn Holy Day of the Catholic Church celebrated annually on November 1. The day is dedicated to the saints of the Church, that is, all those who have attained heaven. Although millions, or even billions of people may already be saints, All Saints’ Day observances tend to focus on known saints --that is those recognized in the canon of the saints by the Catholic Church.

All Souls Day Mass: A special candlelight Remembrance Mass.
WHEN: Thursday, November 2nd at 7pm
WHERE: St. Gabriel Life Center
All are invited to attend, to remember and to pray for the souls of the faithful departed. This is an opportunity to pray for the souls of all deceased family members and friends. The names of parishioners who have died during the past 12 months will be read and family members or a friend will come forward to light a candle in their memory.

If you would like to have the name of a person added whose funeral was held out of town during the past 12 months, please call Ann Stanko at 407-788-7857 by October 31st. No call is necessary if the Funeral Mass was held at our Parish.

On behalf of the Caverly Family and the Priests, Sisters and Staff of Annunciation Catholic Church, we would like to thank you for your cards and notes in remembrance of Monsignor Patrick Caverly. May you be blessed for your compassion and kindness.

FORMED PICK OF THE WEEK

Contemporary Sainthood
By Mark Hart

Be the Saint God Created You to Be
In this inspiring double feature, Mark Hart boldly challenges and encourages you to be the saint God created you to be. As the Church gathers to celebrate the Solemnity of All Saints on November 1st, fuel your spiritual life with invaluable insights into unleashing the power of the Holy Spirit and the dangers of putting human expectations on our supreme God.

What’s the hYPe about?
Our ministry is called hYPe: Helping Young Professionals Engage. This is a group for young adults, ages 23-35. There is a time of life just after college when people feel like their church doesn’t always have a ministry particularly suited to them. Is that you? Problem solved! Visit www.annunciationorlando.org/hype for the latest!

11/3 First Friday followed by Bowling: Come work on knockin’ down sins and afterwards, knockin’ down pins! Clever, right? See you at Mass at 7pm before we head to the alley.

Are you being called to be a deacon?
“It is not right for us to neglect the word of God to serve at table. Brothers, select from among you seven reputable men, filled with the Spirit and wisdom, whom we shall appoint to this task, whereas we shall devote ourselves to prayer and to the ministry of the word.” (Acts 6:2-4)
The Diocese of Orlando, Office of the Permanent Diaconate is calling on the Church community to bring forth reputable men, servants, filled with the Spirit, to discern a call to the permanent diaconate. The Diaconate Information Night is the first step. Five information sessions will be held throughout the diocese in December:

- 12/05/17 Resurrection, Lakeland
- 12/07/17 Holy Name of Jesus, Indialantic
- 12/12/17 Our Lady of Hope, Deltona
- 12/14/17 Timothy, Lady Lake
- 12/19/17 Mary Magdalen, Altamonte Springs

Excerpt from the Gospel - MT 22:37-39

“You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind.
This is the greatest and the first commandment.
The second is like it:
You shall love your neighbor as yourself.”

Stewardship Reflections from the Readings
In today’s Gospel Reading from St. Matthew, a lawyer among the Pharisees again tries to entrap Jesus by asking Him the question, “Teacher, which commandment in the law is the greatest.” Jesus’ response appears multiple times in Holy Scripture, as He says, “You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind.” The Lord then adds another that He cites as almost equally important, “You shall love your neighbor as yourself.”

Much has been written and conjectured about both of these, and often the focus is on who our neighbor is. However, there is another element of the second Great Commandment that is worthy of note, and that is loving the neighbor “as yourself.” Too often people conclude that this means that you have to love yourself first. Most of us grasp what it means to love the Lord with all we are, although it is nearly unattainable to accomplish. However, that second Great Commandment does not mean that it is necessary for us to love ourselves before we can love anyone else. It means, quite simply, that most of us are concerned with our own interests and our own personal situations. Jesus is telling us that just as we often think of ourselves, we need to take care and have concern for the interests of others as well.

In the familiar Prayer of St. Francis known to many Catholics, we sum up what this kind of love to which we are called really is, when we pray, “Lord, grant that I might not so much seek to be loved, as to love.”

Contemplative Mass
Join us for our Contemplative Liturgy...for anyone who practices silent meditation. The celebration of the Eucharist in a contemplative setting is most intimate. Experience the practice of exterior and interior silence as an integral part of liturgy. After the reception of the Eucharist we will have a period of silence before the final blessing.

When: Monday, October 30 at 7:15pm
Where: Nazareth Center
For more information call Basha at 407-869-0781 or e-mail Alice Logan at AliceVL@aol.com
